VINCENT LOMBARDI LODGE #2270 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Essay description and requirements

The essay is a key piece of the scholarship application. For the essay we ask that you choose and interview a person of Italian descent. After reflection upon your conversation, please complete an essay of at least 500 words that meets these requirements.

1. Explain why you chose the person you did. (You may include your interviewee's name with permission).
2. Explain how this person's Italian-American heritage has influenced their life and life choices.

AND

3. Discuss how this person's experience of Italian-American culture has influenced your understanding and appreciation of that heritage.

OR

4. Describe the ways in which your understanding of Italian-American culture is either different from or similar to that of your interviewee.

OR

5. If your interview was particularly vivid or surprising, explain why and reflect upon how the interviewee's remarks helped you to think about your own heritage.

The scholarship committee will read your essay looking for responsiveness, clarity of expression, and mechanics.
